

Corporate Connect Proposal

Medicine for the Soul Yoga is a privately-owned virtual yoga, fitness, meditation, and wellness studio, offering daily live streaming and on-demand classes designed to help people connect with themselves, develop personal performance and productivity, and embrace authentic creativity.

In order to appeal to the widest audience possible we propose offering employees our All-Access plan to our platform, with unlimited live streaming and on-demand classes and the flexibility to pick and choose what, where, and when users would like to exercise and practice.

How it Works

- 1.) Employees will create an account via a custom company signup page.
- 2.) Employees will have unlimited access to live streaming, on-demand, and live recorded classes. They will be able to manage their username, email address, and password via the website.

Please Note:

- a.) All live classes are recorded and immediately available on-demand.*
- b.) An 'Admin' is present in every live class to help assist with any user-technological difficulties, sound connectivity, and general questions.*
- 3.) Medicine for the Soul will invoice according to the Contract between Medicine for the Soul and Client. Payments may be made with credit or debit card via Stripe or direct deposit/ACH wire to Thomas Sutherland, LLC DBA Medicine for the Soul.

Thank you and please let me know if you have any questions or comments.
